Privacy Policy

Our commitment to the Australian Privacy Principles & Credit Reporting
As at 27 July 2023

Our commitment

We value your trust in us as a member-owned financial institution. It is important for us to keep your information secure. As a financial institution, it is also important for us to keep your information confidential. To achieve this, we will comply with the Privacy Act 1988, the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) and the Privacy (Credit Reporting) Code 2014.

The Privacy Act 1988 sets out how we are to collect, use, disclose and store personal, credit and credit eligibility information. The Privacy Act 1988 also requires us to have a privacy policy.

We may also, with your consent and authority, deal with your personal information under the Consumer Data Right (CDR) regime. For more information about how we collect, use, hold and disclose CDR Data under the CDR regime, see our CDR Policy at <https://asset.unitybank.com.au/files/Forms/UBDataHolderCDRPolicyDecember2022.pdf>

Outline of our Policy

Our Policy sets out:

- what information we collect and hold
- when you apply for a loan - what information we use from your credit report
- how we collect and hold information
- why we collect, hold, use and disclose your information
- how you can access your information
- how you can correct your information
- how you can make a complaint
- how we will deal with your complaint
- in what overseas countries we are likely to disclose your information.

Information we collect and hold

We will collect and hold:

- your name, date of birth and evidence of identity
- your tax file number & tax residency details
- your employment details
- your facial image captured by cameras on our property (including ATMs)
- passwords, passcodes and secret questions used to confirm your authorisation of a transaction
- credit and debits to your accounts
- Information about our membership of trade union or professional association which is a requirement for you to become a member.

When you apply for a loan we will also collect and hold:

- information about your financial position
- your current credit history.

We will only collect information that is related to our providing, or arranging others to provide:

- banking products and services
- financial advisory services
- financial accommodation
- general insurance
- travel services.

How we collect your information

We will collect information about you and your financial position from you directly. When you apply for a loan, we will collect information about your credit history from a credit reporting body.

What information do we use from your credit report?

We use your credit report to check if what you have told us about your financial history is correct.

We look at the following information:

- what are your current loans
- what loans have you applied for
- if available, your repayment history on any loans and your default history
- any payment defaults reported by service providers such as telcos and energy companies
- whether there are any Court judgments against you
- whether you are, or have recently been, a bankrupt
- whether you have committed any serious credit infringements.

Your credit report will usually only contain information from the past 5 years. It may contain information from up to the past 7 years if you have committed a serious credit infringement.

We may ask you to explain why your credit report differs from what you have told us about your financial history.

Why we collect, hold, use and disclose personal information

We collect, hold and use your information for a number of reasons, such as to:

- protect the safety and security of our staff and visitors
- provide membership benefits, financial services and products or information about those benefits, services and products
- give you information about financial services and products from third parties we have agreements with
- conduct market and demographic research in relation to the products and services our members acquired from us or third parties we have agreements with.

Why we collect, hold, use and disclose personal information (cont.)

We also collect, hold and use personal information as required by law, for example:

- for our register of members
- to verify your identity
- to assess your capacity to pay a loan.

We collect, hold and use your information:

- when you apply for a loan – to establish your eligibility for a loan and your capacity to repay
- when you have a loan with us – to disclose the following information to a credit reporting body:
 - the fact that you have applied for a loan
 - details of the loan, when approved
 - when payments are due
 - whether you have paid on time
 - when you actually paid.

We disclose your information to other entities such as:

- entities that verify identity
- providers of payment and card services, when you make a transaction using a payment service or a card
- entities that help identify illegal activities and prevent fraud
- lawyers, conveyancers, accountants, brokers and agents who represent you
- contractors for statement printing and mail out, card and cheque production, market research or direct marketing
- affiliated product and service suppliers to provide information to you about their services and products
- credit reporting bodies and other financial institutions that have previously lent to you
- persons you use as referees
- for property loans – property valuers and insurers (including LMI insurers if applicable)
- mortgage documentation services
- trustees and managers of securitised loan programs
- any guarantor or proposed guarantor of a loan
- debt collection agencies, lawyers, process servers
- our auditors
- for loans guaranteed by the Commonwealth under the SME Guarantee Scheme - to the Commonwealth to meet the requirements of the Scheme
- for loans guaranteed by the National Housing Finance Investment Corporation (NHFIC) as part of the First Home Loan Deposit Scheme – to the NHFIC or the Commonwealth to meet the requirements of the Scheme.

- for loans with a security property where a second mortgage to the NSW Government is proposed under the Shared Equity Home Buyer Helper Scheme – to the NSW Government to meet the requirements of the Scheme

We and the above third parties will also disclose your information to law enforcement and government agencies as required by law.

How we hold your information

We hold your information in our banking system. We have security systems to guard against unauthorised access. We also limit access to our employees on a needs basis.

We will destroy or de-identify information when we no longer need it.

Disclosure to overseas recipients

We, or our external service providers, may disclose your personal information (including credit-related information) overseas. The countries where your personal information (including credit-related information) may be disclosed include India, New Zealand, the Philippines, UK and USA.

However, if we, or our external service providers, disclose your personal information outside Australia, the information disclosed will be used only for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy.

How you can access and/or correct your information

You can request access to your information at any time. If the information we hold is incorrect, you can request us to correct it. You can make a request by contacting us, by visiting one of our branches or by telephone. Contact details can be found on our website at unitybank.com.au

We do not currently charge any fees for giving you access to your information.

Making a complaint

You may make a complaint to us if you consider that we have not complied with the relevant provisions of the APPs or relevant credit reporting provisions within the Privacy Act and Privacy (Credit Reporting) Code 2014.
